

I find the local traffic and weather channel on XM radio a very valuable service that I use daily. It gives me timely information with little interruption when compared to AM & FM offerings.